

Training for Chilean lawyers and business professionals

LEGAL ENGLISH FOR NON US TRAINED LAWYERS

Course Program and Instructors

Course delivered by two experienced commercial/transactional and regulatory lawyers with over thirty years of legal experience.

What you will learn:

- Writing Strategies for US Contracts and Business Communications
- Develop Legal English vocabulary
- US Legal Concepts for Drafting Commercial Contracts

Training Subject Schedule

Day 1 - US Contract Drafting
Day 2 - Contingencies and Memo/Email Drafting Day 3 - US Legal English Vocabulary
Day 4 - Negotiation Principles

Certificate of attendance awarded upon completion
*A minimum level of written and spoken English required

For more information:
www.meritzmuenzllp.com

DATE: April 23-26, 2018
(Monday – Thursday)

TIME: 18h30-21h30

LOCATION: Santiago Bar
Association Auditorium
Paseo Ahumada 341, Santiago, Chile
$540 USD

10% Discount
for Bar Association members

Larry and Judy taught a course on Legal English Contract Drafting and Negotiation to a group of international attorneys. The attendees appreciated the interactive learning approach which offered practical examples from years of legal practice. They were responsive to the student's questions and demonstrated vast knowledge across a variety of subject matters.

- Zheng Yu
Partner at JunHe LLP
Beijing, China

Larry and Judy taught in the Contract Drafting and Negotiation program at the International Law Institute (ILI). The participants welcomed the learning approach which included role playing and a group negotiation exercise. The instructors' ability to communicate complex legal concepts was demonstrated when responding to the students' questions, by providing practical business examples.

-Carlos Ivan Davila
Program Administrator
International Law Institute
Washington, DC